EX LIBRIS

I Came, I Saw, I Conquered

*The Class of 1960 Presents The Pow-Wow
Amesbury High School,
Amesbury, Massachusetts*

DEDICATION

Throughout our years at Amesbury High School we have always known the teachers to whom we dedicate this book to be helpful, friendly, conscientious, and sincere towards each one of us. Under the ever concerned eyes of these dedicated persons we have completed an era in our lives which will never be forgotten.

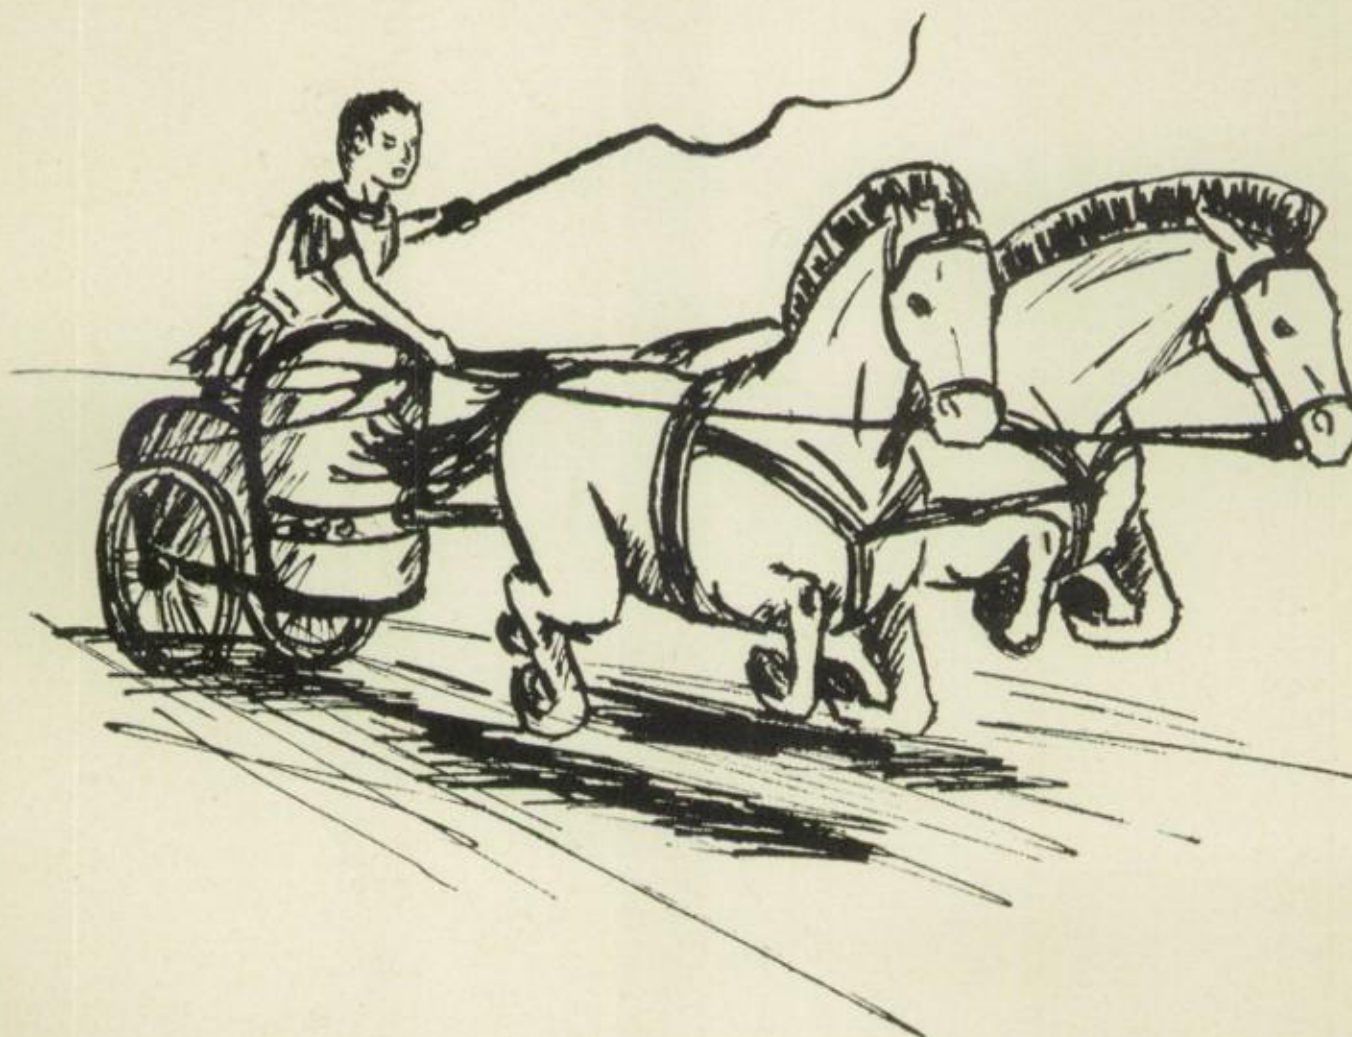

As a small token of our gratitude we hereby dedicate this yearbook to Norma K. Reynolds and Roland H. Woodwell.

FOREWORD

At our departure from the hallowed halls of Amesbury High, we present the 1960 "Pow-Wow" that our fond memories of our days there will be preserved and that our appreciation of A. H. S. will mellow with age. The acts of kindness, experience of fellowship and wise teaching which we have received there will enable us to surmount untold difficulties in the future.

Therefore with the ideal of faith through remembrance we present the 1960 edition of the "Pow-Wow."

ADMINIS

Mr. English

To the Class of 1960:

"All experience is an arch where-through
Gleams that untraveled world margin fades
Forever and forever when I move."

Since your earliest childhood you have been approaching such an arch. The margins of your sight and understanding have been continually expanding. As you look back to your freshman year you can realize the progress you have made during high school. Now that you have finished that part of your experience, it is not the proper time nor is there ever a proper time, to stop your progress toward that great arch you can approach but never quite reach. Push on! Never falter in your endeavor to approach more perfect knowledge. One is never too old to learn.

Fred C. English, Supt.

June 10, 1960

To the Class of 1960:

Congratulations to each member of the 1960 graduating class for the successful completion of your high school education.

It is our hope that this education you have received at Amesbury High School will help you to succeed in your goals for the future.

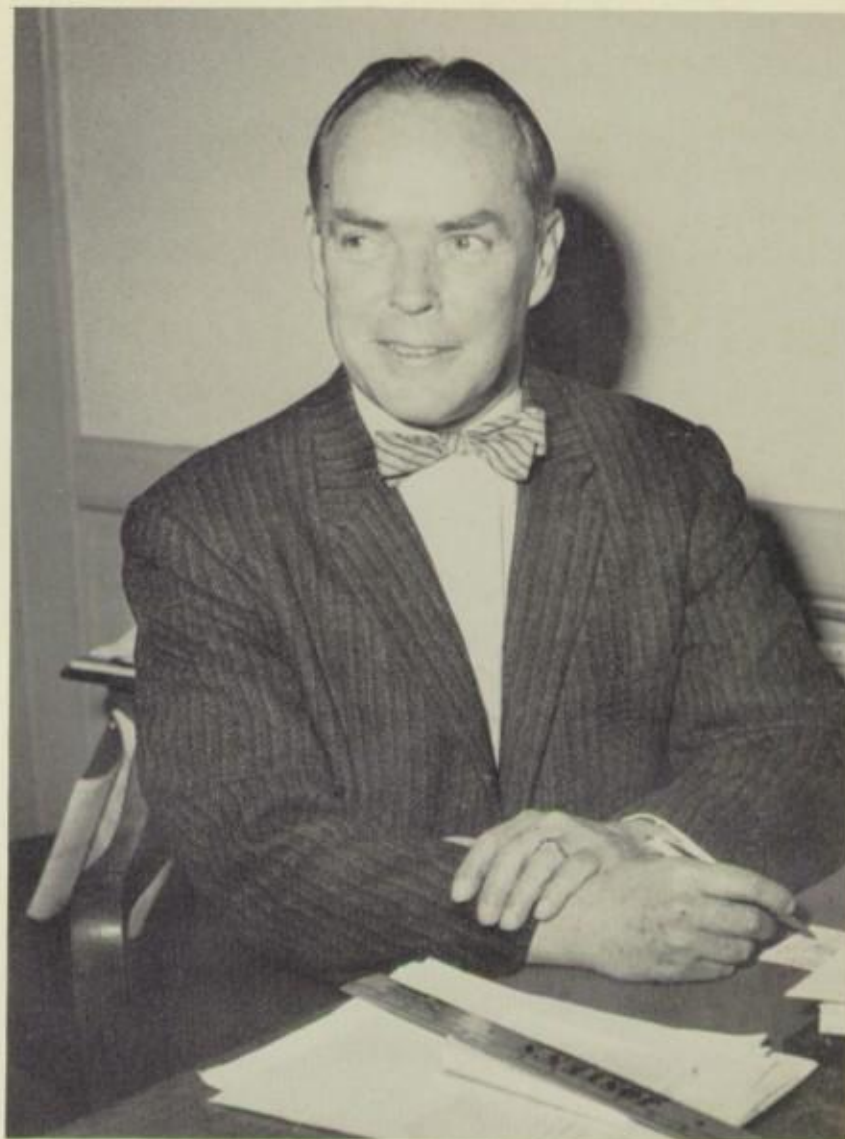

Sincerely,

Carleton D. Skillings

CLASS POLL 1960

PROPHECY

Come my children and you shall hear the fate of the seniors far and near. We've looked around and found them all. The stout the thin the short and tall.

They've roamed the earth from sea to sea and these are the things that were told to me in the nineteen-hundred and seventy.

Linda Cote is now working as an understudy for Julia Mead on the Ed Sullivan show.

Judy Croteau has started a home for wayward boys.

Dick Crowe makes millions polishing brass door knobs.

Jossy Dalmolen is now selling wooden shoes at Claytons Shoe Store.

Conrad DiGennaro, Lloyd Briggs, and Jeff Healy will receive gold picks and shovels June 20, 1970 for 10 years of faithful service at the department of public works.

Richard DiStefano is working at Hoyts by heck, shelling peanuts by the peck.

Eddie Downer is a wholesale dealer for deoderized manure.

David Downs is now living in the South Seas giving dancing lessons to hula girls.

Billy Drabik is a leading Chicago gangster. The new Al Capone.

Florence Dube was voted Mother of 1970. She now has 24 children!

Sharon Dunphy is poerating the Salisbury-Maine bus line.

Theresa Dupuis, Judy Quigley, and Jean Wood are working on the chorus line at Ronald Young's Night Club in Las Vagas.

Linda Wiggin is now seen walking up Main Street pushing her banana wagon.

Arlene Dyke recently received a silver cup for the best cow milker.

Georgette Emond now sings in Carnegie Hall.

Mable Evans has gained more fame than Shakespeare by her fabulous novel, "I'm in love with a wonderful guy".

Mary Evans is the new Betty Crocker--Mary always said the way to a man's heart is through his stomach.

Robert Frothingham is now working as a lamplighter at the Franklin Park Zoo.

PROPHECY

Lois Fulford designs hats for sports car drivers.

Sandra Armstrong is now doing well as a Fuller Brush woman.

Arlene Bartley is an elastic teater at Bartley's corsette factory.

Carolyn Vessels was awarded citations for bravery in the Waves.

Gail Woodard is now president of "The Mother Haters Club of America."

Patty York is a waitress at Pease Air Force Base.

Donald Lieber designs nose cones for toy rockets.

Ginny Morrill is an overseas entertainer for service men.

Emma Marchand broadcasts daily on "The Night Life of Jeannie Lebel."

Mona Mailloux shocks clams at Victor Loisells's Lobster Pound.

Donald Matthews is still trying to pull the wool over the eyes of a flock of sheep that were the class of '60'.

Sharon O'Brien is still pulling in money from her Gold Record, "I'm No Angel."

Joseph O'Keefe was hired recently at the Clover Club to blow the froth off beers.

Judy Ouellet collects money for the Salvation Army at the annual Amesbury--Newburyport game.

Pauline Pare is now raising puppies.

Harold Parents was indited by the Grand Jury recently for accepting payola.

Sandra Parkman keeps busy giving poodles permanents.

Pauline Riopel is modeling clothes at J.M. Fields.

Alice Loiselle is putting the stars & stripes on flags.

Paula Boutin is an expert on modern marriage problems.

Robert Morrill is manager of the Glove Trotters.

CLASS WILL

Be it remembered that we, the graduating class of 1960 of Amesbury High School, in the commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and memory, but realizing the uncertainty of this life, do make this our last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills and testaments by us at anytime heretofore made.

After the payment of our just debts and funeral charges, we bequeath the following:

To The Faculty

Item: More time.

Item: Our gratitude for the interest and guidance which was shown us through our past four years at Amesbury High.

Item: Our hope that future students will appreciate and benefit from this helpful guidance.

To The Student Body

Item: Better grades.

Item: Stronger school spirit.

Item: New school.

To The Freshmen

Item: Relief on leaving that confused year behind you.

Item: Great expectations for the next three years.

To The Sophomores

Item: The joy of receiving class rings.

Item: The excitement of the Junior Prom.

To The Juniors

Item: The privilege of marching into the auditorium.

Item: The headaches and joys of editing the Pow-wow.

Item: The discovery of new talent for the presentation of the Senior Play.

Item: Best wishes upon graduating from A.H.S.

To Dr. Smith we leave a pair of suspenders.

To Miss Flynn we leave a free redecorating job for the French room.

To Mr. Wallace we leave a book on "The History of the Republican Party."

The entire Senior class bequeaths to the underclassmen the book "Lessons In Class Spirit."

To the underclassmen we leave the high ambitions and ideal cooperation of the present Senior class.

To the Post Graduates, we bequeath our appreciation of their company during the past year as pleasant reminders of our rival class "Fifty-nine."

We leave the best of luck to Mr. Smith's future English classes.
 Chris Picard does not leave Jackie Martin.
 Nelson Merchant leaves Horace Baxter his reserved seat in detention hall.
 David Pearson leaves his favorite book "School Made Easy" to Paul Hudon.
 Marlene Headley leaves her musical talent to Irene Lahait.
 Jossy Dalmolen leaves her faithful book "How to Lose Pounds and Gain Dates," to Jean White.
 Lloyd Briggs leaves his apple polishing kit to "Sunshine."
 To Janice Perrochi we leave a pair of stilts so we can see her coming.
 Lorraine Kent leaves her shy ways to Mary Tassinari.
 To Virginia Morse we leave an I.B.M. machine to answer all her questions.
 Carole Tornrose leaves her artistic talents to Janet Torosian.
 To Bill Shore, the Senior class wishes success as captain of next year's football team.
 Bill Allen leaves his left over supply of red elastics to Charles Claeys, with the hope that he will get the same results.
 Gail Woodward leaves her sunny disposition to Betty Slaughter.
 The Senior class leaves lounge chairs, ashtrays, and a coke machine to Study Halls.
 Karen Klein leaves her freckle remover cream to Marilyn Rock hoping that she will have more success.
 Charles Blaisdell leaves his black motor cycle jacket to James Goldthwaite.
 Laureen Gauron and Anne Torosian leave copies of their 10 minute talks to next years seniors.
 Sharon O'Brien leaves her secret formula for hair coloring to her understudy Annie Dalmolen.
 Robert Hellen leaves his successful ability to bluff to Ronald Gonthier.
 Maureen Rose leaves her well educated animal managery to Mary Lou Antell.
 Alice Loiselle leaves her tiny feet to Tiny Lusignant.
 Conrad Digennaro leaves his secret list of tactics for collecting class dues to next year's class treasurer.
 Marcia Burdick leaves her full volume of books on "How to Flirt" to Prudy Myrick.
 Dave Tuxbury leaves his rules for good date etiquette to Sluggar Desroche and Bill Palmer.
 Richard Crowe, Louie Bunnell, and David Cote leave their left over vitamins to George Burdick, Scott Briggs and Billy Merchant.
 The Senior Class of 1960 leaves A.H.S. with many fond memories gathered throughout the past four years.

In witness, whereof, we, the undersigned declare this our last will and testament, this tenth day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty.

The Class of nineteen hundred and sixty of Amesbury High School of the Town of Amesbury, County of Essex, and of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

VARSITY RECORD

The Amesbury High School basketball team had quite an unsuccessful season this year. The problem was Amesbury's lack of height.

Despite the height factor, Amesbury was a better team than its record showed. It lost several games by five points and many times even less. Amesbury defeated Newburyport twice, once at the beginning of the season, and another time at the end of the season.

At the basketball banquet at the season's end, David Tuxbury announced Dick Mansourian as next year's captain.

HOCKEY

Under the direction of the new coach, George "Archie" Armstrong, the hockey team had a skein of bad luck with the goal. Sophomore Wayne Day started out in the net followed by George Chauncey. George was replaced later on by Richard Dupere. Due to illness "Dupe" had to give up hockey and both Wayne and George finished up the year for the pucksters.

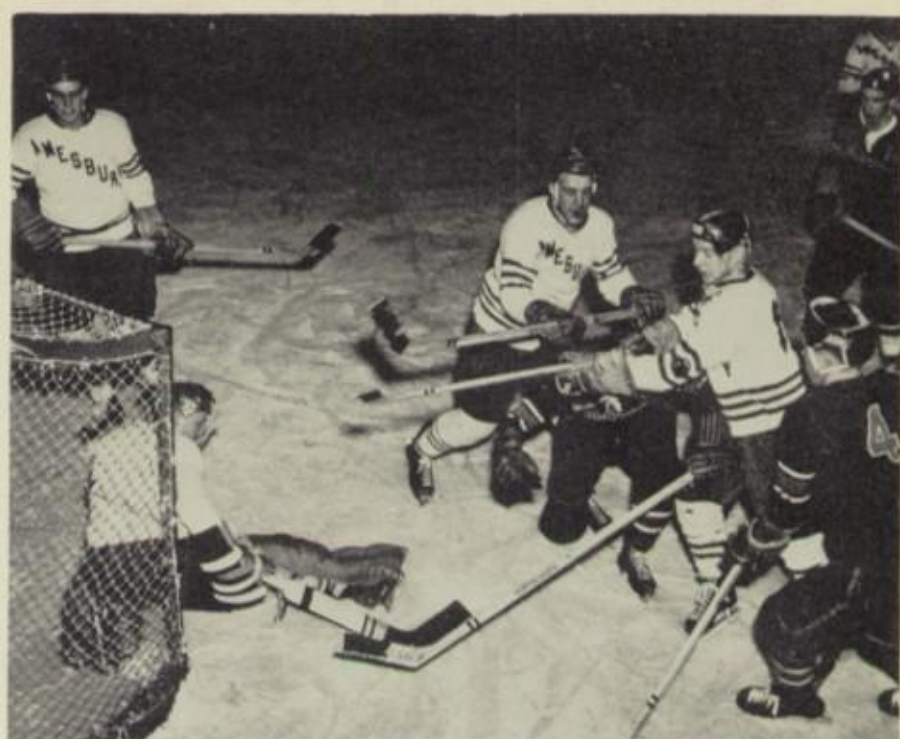

The team took to the road for a trip to Lewiston, Maine, and were defeated 4 to 1 in "the wildest game ever played at the arena."

Capt. John Gilday led the scoring for the second year in a row followed by Jon Martin and Joseph O'Keefe who were tied for second. The hard working line of Albert Belanger, William R. Brown, Wayne Bean, Jackie McLaughlin, and John Buswell proved a great asset to the team. The rugged defense work of William A. Brown, Edgar DesRoches, Phil Brown, and Paul Hudon kept the score at a minimum.

At the annual banquet William R. Brown received the "Rookie of the Year" award and Joe O'Keefe was awarded the "Most Valuable Player" trophy. Jackie McLaughlin was elected captain of the 1960-61 Indian team.

Amesbury's answer to Mickey Mantle!

This year was a very successful season for the A.H.S. Baseball team, winning 7 out of 14 games giving them the best record in several years. Fine pitching by Ed Downer and superb hitting by Captain Pete Aham and other seniors played a big part in the teams success. A number of players ended up with excellent batting averages and a few were over the .300 mark. The team showed very much spirit throughout the season, which contributed to much of the team's success.

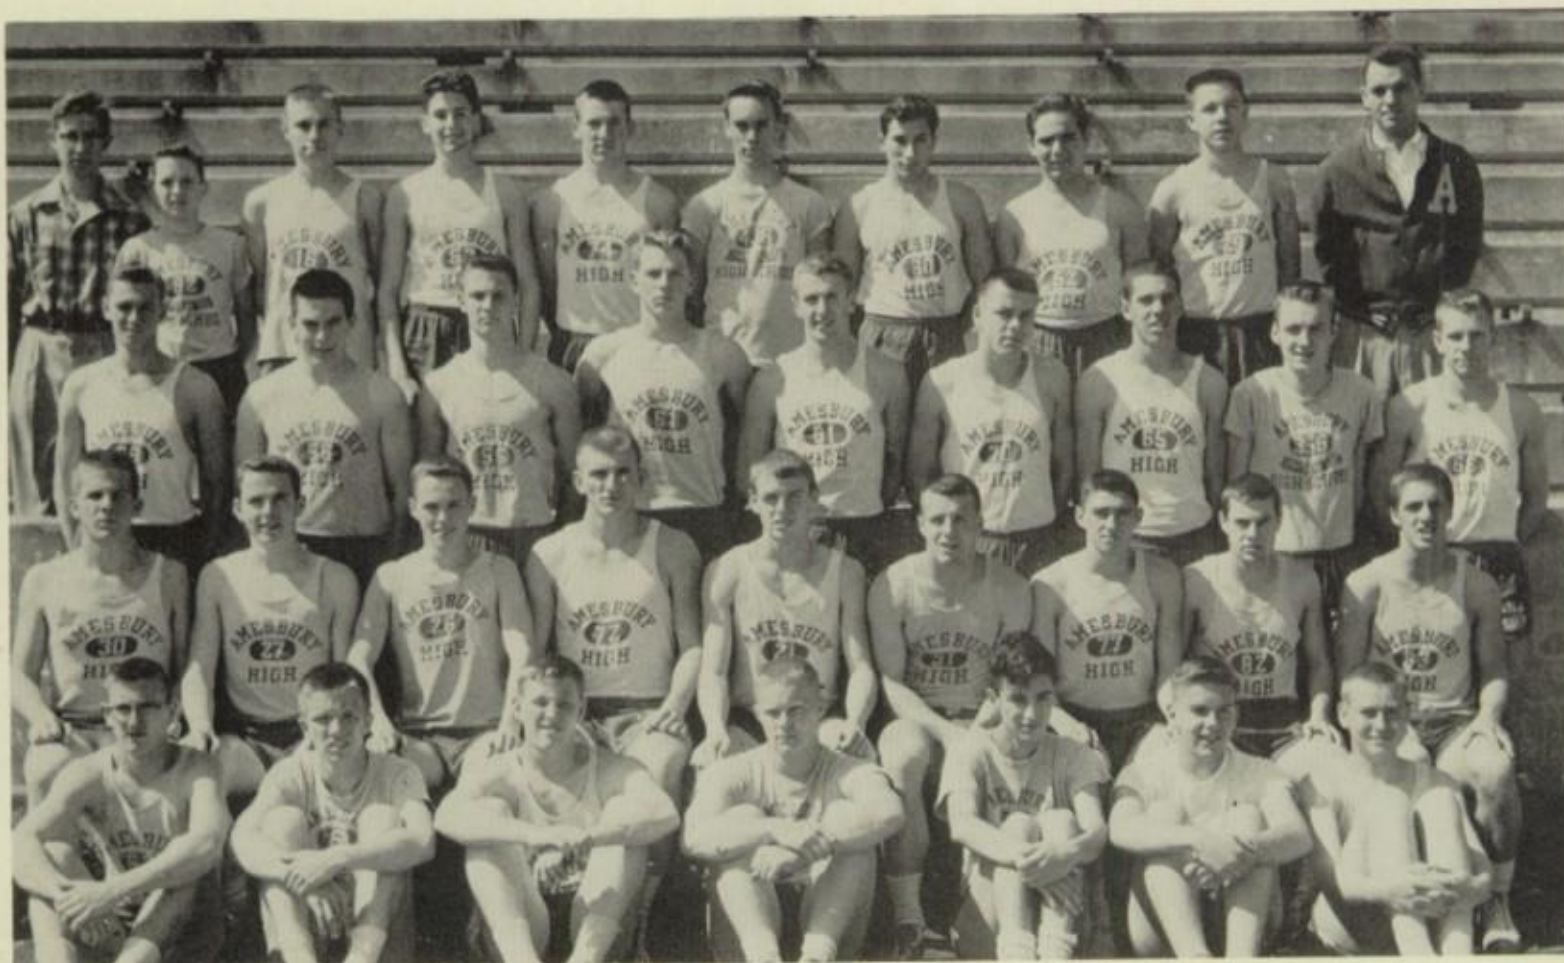

The Indians made a bid for second place in the conference but lost three of their last four games, leaving them just shy of their mark. However, they ended the season on a bright note by beating the Clippers of Newburyport.

Aham scoops it up.

Faster, George!

TRACK

This year, as in the past three years, the A. H.S. Track team came up with another perfect season. No team scored more than 25 per cent of the possible 77 points; some scored less than 10 per cent. Many records were broken this year including the shot put record, 440 record, half mile record, broad jump record, relay record and discus record.

At the Saint Johns' Relays the Indians came in third, three places better than a year ago. The Indians surprised everyone at the state meets coming within 2 1/2 points of state champions. After winning all of the dual meets they went on to capture the Conference meet. A mountain of thanks should be given to our fabulous coach, Bert Fecteau, for giving us these four successful seasons. At the end of the season jackets were given to the lettermen of the championship team, and Bill Shore was elected next year's captain.
